Situation involved: Donald Manning, Sr., Robert Manning; Randy Lucas

Chronology:

- 11/10/90: An interested Scouter called informing me of the arrests of Donald Manning, Sr., Roberta Manning and Randy Lucas on alleged sexual misconduct charges.
- 11/11/90: Scoutmaster of Troop 31 called advising me of basically the same story.
- 11/12/90: I called a Council Executive Board Member in Garrett County to find out what he had heard. He shared the additional information that the alleged victim was receiving care.
- 11/12/90: I called Scott Murray, Chairman of the Potomac Council's Youth Protection Committee, -- recounting what I knew.
- 11/14/90: The SM of Troop 31 called, said that Rick Kutchman of the Garrett County Protective Services called asking for permission to come to Troop 31's meeting that night to interview the other boys. We encouraged him to do so.
- 11/14/90: Father Feild called and reported that he was present at the troop meeting - that Rick Kutchman did his interview and told Father Feild that he didn't see any involvement by any of the other boys.
- 11/15/90: Article on arrests published in Cumberland Times
- Thursday - 11/15/90: Article on arrests published in Cumberland Times
- Thursday - 11/15/90: Rick Kutchman called me and confirmed that he had indeed interviewed each boy in the troop and felt, that in his opinion no one else was involved outside of the Mannings and Lucas.
- Friday - 11/16/90: Youth Protection Crisis Management Committee met and reviewed all information from past week. Recommendations coming from meeting included:
- (1) Sending certified letters to Randy Lucas & Donald Manning revoking their registration in the Boy Scouts of America. (receipt required)
 - (2) To look into the possibility of meeting with the boys, parents and adult leaders in the troop about the situation but after the case was closed.
- Friday - 2/8/91 : Pat Reed, District Aide, called to inform me that the trials for Randy Lucas & Roberta Manning had begun and a front page article in the Republican regarding the trial had mentioned that some of the incidents between one of the adults and the victim had occurred at Scout meetings. She said that many concerned parents and leaders had called. We agreed that an open meeting for all concerned should be held as soon as possible.
- Friday - 2/8/91 : I called Scout Murray to inform him of the new circumstances and he agreed that a meeting on Feb. 18 would be appropriate.

Tuesday - 2/12/91 : Talked with Rick Kutchman of Protective Services to see if anything new had occurred since his investigation and he said no. He went on to reiterate that "the investigation was conducted with full cooperation of the Scouting organization and that he was sure that there was no involvement outside of the 3 adults and the single victim.

Tuesday - 2/12/91 : I called Mary McEwan at the Republican to express our concern with the article and to share with her the fact that a meeting was scheduled. We encouraged newspaper participation at the meeting. She said she would put an article in the paper regarding the meeting.

Tuesday - 2/12/91 : I called the former state's attorney from Allegany County asking him how the newspaper knew what it knew. He said that probably from papers filed at the clerks office. I also asked him if it would be possible to get some details from the assistant State's Attorney from Garrett County regarding the case. He said he would call her.

Tuesday - 2/12/91 : Bob Hamilton called back, said he had talked with Lisa Thayer (Ass't States Attorney) and that she was willing to talk with me.

Tuesday - 2/12/91 : Called Lisa Thayer (Ass't State's Attorney) told her about the concern of the parents and leaders. She said that in her opinion she considered the case to involve two families rather than Scouting. She went on to say that "the contact of the victim & the adults involved was initiated outside of Scouts."

2/18/91 : Held open meeting at Garrett Community College with about 50 Scouters and parents. Council President, James S. Bryner, Crisis Management Chairman Scott Murray and Scout Executive Brad Burr chaired the meeting. No press attended although they were invited.

Agenda included:

- (1) Why we are here including:
 - (a) Deal with facts
 - (b) Allay questions
 - (c) Answer questions
 - (d) To not let the success of Scouting be damaged by the unacceptable behavior of a few
- (2) Complete chronology of the case
- (3) Open forum - Questions, Comments, etc. etc.

The meeting aired a great deal. One of the investigating police officers was there and supported vigorously the contention that this was not Scout related. Ended on a very positive note.

1st Release was prepared to respond to initial press requests.

Dear Mr. Livengood,

Due to the charges brought against Randy R. Lucas and Donald W. Manning, Sr., Assistant Scoutmaster in Troop 31, chartered by your organization, we of Potomac Council, with full consent and support of the Boy Scouts of America, have revoked their membership.

We have been in touch with all parties during this unfortunate crises and have cooperated fully with the authorities.

At this point in time, the concerns that their activities spread into the troop seem not to be supported by the investigation. We hope and pray that this is the case.

We also hope that this does not turn you, your organization, the Scouts, leaders and the community sour on the Scouting program. The program has had unprecedented success during the past 80 years due in no small part to the support of organizations like yours.

I will keep you informed if the current situation changes.

If we can help you or the Elks in any, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Brad Burr

Lucas Receives Five Years For Sex Offense

APR 11 1981

Randy R. Lucas, 20, Oakland, was sentenced to five years in the Maryland Department of Corrections on the charge of second degree sex offense. Judge Fred A. Thayer of the Garrett County Circuit Court handed down the sentence last Thursday.

Lucas was charged with the offense last fall after he sexually abused a teenager, according to the court record. The abuse to the 14-year-old apparently often occurred during boy scout meetings in a hidden location at the meeting place. Lucas was acting as the troop leader at the time of the crime.

Since the time of the defendant's arrest, boy scout leaders and other officials have conducted an extensive investigation into area scout troops to search for other possible incidents of abuse. After several months of this investigation, no other evidence of any type of abuse has been found, according to a spokesperson.

Lucas was remanded to the Garrett County Sheriff after sentencing. Defense attorney for the defendant was Robert C. Hesson.

Manning To Serve 10 Years; Other Sex Cases Heard

Judge Fred A. Thayer of the Garrett County Circuit Court sentenced convicted child abuser Roberta Manning, 34, Oakland, on Thursday to ten years in the Maryland Department of Corrections. Mrs. Manning was remanded to the custody of the Garrett County Sheriff after sentencing, and will receive credit for time served (197 days).

Manning pleaded guilty to the child abuse charge at a February hearing, and a pre-sentence investigation was ordered by Thayer at that time. Other charges against the defendant that were not prosecuted included second degree rape, second and third degree sex offense, and unnatural and perverted sex practice.

The charges stemmed from incidents involving a 13-year-old male, which occurred during the months of January through October of 1990.

Defense attorney for the defendant was John R. Toston.

Donald W. Manning Sr., 37, Oakland, husband of Roberta Manning, pleaded guilty to a child abuse charge during the Thursday proceedings. The plea was accepted by Thayer, and a pre-sentence investigation was ordered.

Other counts against this defendant include second and third degree sex offenses, sodomy, and assault and battery. These charges were not prosecuted.

Mr. Manning's charges stem from incidents spanning approximately three years, 1987-90, during which he allegedly sexually abused a young boy.

Manning's bail was revoked, and he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff pending sentencing. Defense counsel for the defendant was Bill L. Smith.

Oakland Rep. 5-30-91

Manning, Lucas Sex Offense Case Heard In Court

Oakland residents Roberta Manning, 34, and Randy R. Lucas, 19, went before Judge Fred A. Thayer last Friday to face charges of child abuse and sex offenses. Both Manning and Lucas were allegedly involved in the ongoing sexual abuse of a 14-year-old male occurring over several months in 1990.

Roberta Manning pleaded guilty to child abuse after a plea agreement, according to the court document. Judge Thayer accepted the plea and ordered a presentence investigation. Manning's bail was revoked, by order of the court, and she was remanded to the Garrett County Sheriff.

Charges against Manning that were not prosecuted were second degree rape, second degree sex offense, unnatural and perverted sex practice, and incest. The charges were brought against the defendant on October 31, 1990, when police received a tip that sexual abuse was occurring to the 14-year-old boy.

Also charged at that time was Manning's husband, Donald W. Manning Sr. Manning has yet to face his charges of child abuse and sex offenses, as his trial was continued last Friday, according to the court document.

John R. Toston defended Mrs. Manning.

Randy Lucas pleaded guilty to second degree sex offense. Thayer accepted the plea and ordered a pre-sentence investigation. Lucas's bail was revoked.

Lucas was also charged with third degree sex offense and unnatural and perverted sex practice. These charges were not prosecuted.

Charges against Lucas stemmed from his apparent sexual abuse of the same 14-year-old. When asked when and where the abuse occurred, Lucas reportedly said that it often happened during boy scout meetings in a hidden area. Lucas was the leader of the scout troop, according to the court document.

Defense counsel for Lucas was Robert C. Hesson.

Three charged with child, sex abus

By PATRICK GREGG

Times-News Writer

OAKLAND — Local authorities have confirmed that three local residents have been arrested on child and sex abuse charges, stemming from crimes they allegedly committed against a 13-year-old boy.

The Garrett County State's Attorney's Office Wednesday released information concerning the arrests of Roberta Manning, 34, Donald Wayne Manning Sr., 37, and Randy Ray Lucas, 19, all of Oakland.

The Mannings, husband and wife, were arrested Nov. 8, while Lucas was arrested Nov. 9 following a tip to the Garrett County Department of Social Services and the Oakland City Police Department, officials said.

The Mannings remain incarcerated in the Garrett County Jail on $50,000 full bond apiece, while Lucas has been released when 10 percent of his $25,000 bond was posted Sunday.

Roberta Manning faces six charges, including four felony charges and two misdemeanors. The felony charges include child abuse, child under 18, with imprisonment of 15 years maximum; second-degree rape, under-age victim, 20 years maximum; second-degree sex offense, under-victim, 20 years maximum; third-degree sex offense, under-age victim, 20 years maximum.

Misdemeanor charges against the local woman include perverted practice, with a possible maximum sentence of 1 year and/or $1,000, and tery, with punishment to be set by the sitting judge.

Donald Wayne Manning Sr. was also charged with four felony and two misdemeanor crimes. The felony counts include child abuse, child under 18, imprisonment of 15 years maximum; second-degree sex offense, under-age victim, 20 years maximum; third-degree sex offense, under-age victim, 10 years maximum; and sodomy, 10 years maximum.

Misdemeanor charges against the man include perverted practice, punishable by 10 years and/or $1,000, and battery, with punishment set by the sitting judge.

Lucas was charged with two felonies and one misdemeanor, including second-degree sex offense, under-age victim, 20 years maximum, third-degree sex offense, under-age victim, 10 years maximum, and battery, with punishment to be set by the judge.

Court documents indicated that the sexual acts occurred between January and October of this year, and all crimes involved the same juvenile, who was 13 years old at the time the acts occurred.

"This kind of crime angers a person that it does happen, but it also scares you because there is more of it out there," said Lisa C. Thayer, assistant state's attorney for Garrett County. "More of these cases come to light now because of the media coverage and atten-

"Due to the nature of the crime and the extent of harm caused to the child or children involved, this office will fully prosecute, and request appropriate punishments."

Arrest reports filed by the Oakland City Police Department, and obtained in the court, stated that Roberta Manning signed a written statement that she had engaged in sexual intercourse with the juvenile, and had sexual contact in the genital area with the youth.

Donald Wayne Manning signed a statement which said that he had engaged in anal and oral sex with the same juvenile.

Lucas signed a statement which said that he had engaged in oral sex with the juvenile.

Officials in Garrett County District Court and Garrett County Circuit Court indicated that no court dates had been set for the three as of yet.
